

THE IMPORTANCE OF DOCTRINE

1. Definition: As used in this categorical study, doctrine is the content of Scripture exegeted and taught categorically by a pastor-teacher in a local church.

1.1 Col. R. B. Thieme has developed an acrostic to communicate the way doctrine should be taught in the local church: ICE, for Isagogics, Categories and Exegesis. I have amplified it somewhat.

ICED

I The I stands for Introduction, meaning those facts which introduce historical nuances and background information about the book, the author and the historical setting.

C The C stands for Categories meaning, that study of a subject found throughout the Bible as opposed to an eclectic approach.

E The E stands for Exegesis meaning, a critical analysis of the Bible performed from a study of the original language using the best manuscripts available.

D The D stands for Dispensation meaning, that analysis of the Biblical passage or passages given the epoch of time to which the Scripture relates.

2. In 2Ti 3:16-17 we find that doctrine is stressed as the means for performing the Christian life.

2Ti 3:16: All scripture is God breathed and is profitable for doctrine for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness

1Ti 3:17: In order that the man of God might be perfect thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

2.1 Scripture, however, must be interpreted based on a complete and thorough exegesis.

3. 2Pe 1:2-8 summarizes the process for acquiring doctrine. In an earlier study of Peter's second epistle, I exegeted and analyzed verses 2 through 8. Rather than an extensive review, I want to simply present an expanded translation of 2Pe 1:2-8.

Expanded Translation

2Pe 1:2 God's wonderful plan for your life and the peace and stability that comes from that plan, I want it for each of you; however, you must realize it can only come from Bible doctrine metabolized in your soul, where the full knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ becomes more real than reality.

2Pe 1:3 For you see, God's divine power has provided everything that pertains to your life in time. Your spiritual life is a product of the doctrine you have in your soul. God called you for the solitary purpose of glorifying Him.

2Pe 1:4 To facilitate our progress in the Christian life, God has provided in Scripture many great and precious promises; in order that, by the inculcation of these marvelous promises, you might become partakers of a divine nature, having escaped the control and domination of your old sin nature.

2Pe 1:5 And because of God's grace, there are several protocols which must be added to your faith in Christ; for example, to your faith you must add the consistent intake of the Word of God and to this virtue you have to keep on adding more doctrine. The transforming of the mind is a never-ending task.

2Pe 1:6 And to your newly acquired doctrine you must add self-control, organized thinking and patience as you continue metabolizing the Word of God, even when it is inconvenient, consistently making application of that which you have learned.

2Pe 1:7 And to that application you must learn to appreciate your very own spiritual life, even while living right smack in the middle of the devil's world. And to this appreciation you must acquire a thorough understanding of God's protocols, some of which are very difficult and illogical. For example you are to pray for your enemies; you are to do good to those who abuse you; you are to give thanks in all things you are to pray regularly and you are to use your freedom in Christ as a liberty and not a license.

2Pe 1:8 Now if the protocols listed in verses two through seven are resident in your soul, you will not be devoid of divine good; for these precious promises will make you a living testimony of Him who called you, as His ambassador for time.

4. Now let's study 2Pe 1:9 where the plight of the negative believer is set forth. In verse nine, we find a description of the poor Christian who has not added to his faith the cast of characters demanded in the first eight verses of 2nd Peter chapter two.

2Pe 1:9 but he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins."

4.1 This verse suffers from a translation problem.

4.1.1 "But" is actually a poor translation of Gar. Gar is better translated "for you see."

4.1.2 The phrase "he that lacketh these things" is better translated "to whom these things are not present." Instead of speaking of the "assembled characters" belonging to the Christian, the verse indicates they may be present, but not his or her settled possession.

4.1.3 Because many believers have not followed the protocol plan of God, they wake up in a new world each morning, unaware of their very own spiritual life and oblivious to the fact they have a spiritual sense of destiny. These negative believers are everywhere today. Our churches are full of them, and, perhaps worse, there are many born-again people who have rejected the church altogether. The protocol plan of God is perhaps best summarized in our Edification Complex of The Soul chart.

4.1.4 The phrase "cannot see afar off" is a translation of Muopazo, a word used by Aristotle of a near-sighted man. It was also used by Ecclesiasticus of a man who has seen the light, but blinking he turns away from the light.

4.1.5 Here the word Muopazo modifies the word Tuflos, translated "blind." The word blind is better "he screws up his eyes because of the light, seeing only things present and not the heavenly things.Ó

4.1.6 Negative people can't see spiritual things because doctrine is spiritually discerned.

4.1.7 Vincent has written of the blind soul "he cannot see the things of heaven, though he may be quick enough in regard to worldly matters."

4.1.8 "Hath forgotten" in the Greek text is literally "having taken forgetfulness." The phrase comes from Lambano Lethe, which is better translated "having seized a state of forgetfulness, a state of oblivion."

4.1.9 "Purged" is Katharizo and means "to be cleansed." This is an apt description of the saint who will not use the two power options.

4.1.10 Continued refusal to take in the Word may result in a believer forgetting he was ever saved.

4.1.11 This Christian is not stone-blind but simply lacks even the basics--a sad situation indeed.

5. Now let's leave Second Peter and develop further our subject, "The Importance of Doctrine."

6. It is impossible to please God if you do not believe that He is your Savior and that He blesses the believer who uses the two power options.

Heb 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7. Without doctrine you will find your prayers to be an abomination to God.

Pro 28:9 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayers shall be an abomination.

8. Pro 12:1a tells us the man who loves spiritual growth will love knowledge.

Pro 12:1 Whoever loveth instruction loveth knowledge: and he that hateth reproof is brutish.

8.1 Notice Pro 12:1b tells us not to despise discipline; we should accept it and move forward. The man who rebels against the discipline of God is brutish-- animal-like.

8.2 Compare this Proverb to Heb 4:12. The anonymous writer of Hebrews declares the power of Scripture, how it cuts to the essence of our soul and human spirit discerning our true thoughts and intents.

NIV

Heb 4:12 For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart.

9. Doctrine was always with God, even from eternity past; before anything was there was doctrine. Pro 8:22 and 23 also declare the importance God places on doctrine.

Pro 8:22-23 The Lord possessed wisdom in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. Wisdom was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, before the earth was.

10. God has magnified His Word, even above His name and reputation. A clear demonstration of the importance of His Word is found in Psa 132:2.

"I will worship toward the Holy Temple and praise thy Name for thy loving Kindness and for thy Truth: for thou hast magnified thy Word above all thy Name."

11. The attitude of a believer toward Bible doctrine determines whether he or she receives blessing or discipline in time.

Pro 8:33-36 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the post of my doors. For whoever findeth doctrine, findeth life and shall obtain favor of the Lord. But he that sinneth against doctrine wrongeth his own soul: and all they that hate me love operational death in time.

12. Daily study of the Word of God will make the believer a unique success says Jos 1:8.

Jos 1:8 This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then you shall make thy way prosperous, and then you shall have a good success.

13. Doctrine, therefore, is the basis for blessing in time.

Psa 23:6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: for I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

14. Doctrine must become more real than reality in the life of a believer.

KJV

2Pe 1:19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your heart:

14.1 An expanded and corrected translation of 2Pe 1:20 demands a categorical study of Scripture.

Expanded Translation

2Pe 1:20 Know and understand no verse should be read and interpreted alone; i.e., it must not be isolated from what the Scripture says elsewhere.

15. In order to function properly in time every believer is urged to get under the authority of his or her right pastor-teacher.

Heb 10:25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Heb 13:7 Remember them which have the rule over you, those men who have spoken unto you the Word of God: whose faith follow, considering the result of their modus operandi of studying and teaching.

Heb 13:17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves for they watch for your souls as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not grief: for that is unprofitable for you.
